

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Nestor De Baca, the wealthiest cattleman in Union county, owner of 125 patented claims, a large herd of thoroughbred cattle, stockholder in half a dozen banks, including the First National Bank at Clayton, and withal a good fellow with everybody, was in Roy Friday, visiting his nephew, Remigio Lopez, and buying 5,000 pounds of barbed wire from the Goodman Mercantile Co. Mr. Baca is an old timer here and has made his fortune of half a million dollars by taking advantage of conditions as he found them. He has not let his money spoil him, but drives a team and does the same work himself as his men do. While lacking in education himself he sees the need of it, and his children have had the best educational advantages the country affords.

Pure fruit syrups are what is used in making soda water at Fairview Pharmacy.

Everybody should use the Roy District Fair Association stationery for letters from now on. Artistic and attractive letterheads and envelopes have been printed for the purpose of advertising, and you should use them. Write on these to your friends and let them see that we are the real "live wire" of the new state of New Mexico.

The Floersheim Mercantile Co. have up to this date shipped to Boston over 250,000 pounds of wool. The wool is shipped East to be scoured. They expect about 150,000 pounds more, making this one of the best wool seasons this enterprising firm has had for some years.

J. L. Linson, the Mosquero booster, was in Roy over night this week. Mr. Linson just returned from Oklahoma, and speaks more favorably than ever of our country, especially after seeing the drought-stricken state of Oklahoma.

A. S. Hanson boarded the southbound train, Wednesday. Mr. Hanson has gone to Nara Visa, where he will superintend the shipping of the broom corn the Floersheim Mercantile Co. have stored at that point.

Miss Opal Evans and friend, Mrs. Lawbaugh, took the town in last Saturday. They made this office a pleasant call.

Nara Visa will hold a fair on Monday and Tuesday, October 2 and 3.

Don't forget the Roy District Fair, October 5, 6 and 7.

Mr. Jake Floersheim has decided to subdivide 40 acres of his farm near town. The tract will be platted and lots sold. Watch for attractive figures, should you desire any building lots. The Roy Real Estate & Abstract Co. will have the handling and sale of the Floersheim Addition town lots.

Francisco Miera, the well known sheepman and politician of Union county, brought his wool clip in Tuesday, the Floersheim Meacantile Co. purchasing it. Mr. Miera returned loaded with supplies. He is a pleasant man to meet and talk with.

Henry Ransom filed on a 320-acre homestead this week. He was out looking the country over and was so taken up with our agricultural possibilities that he selected a fine 320-acre tract north of town in the Missouri Flat community.

Lisle Bradley had a little bad luck this week. The Goodman Mercantile Co. delivery team which he drives got away from him and made things lively for a while. Result, smashed up wagon and broken harness.

Miss Ada Willcox of Pueblo, Colo., arrived Wednesday, and is visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willcox. Miss Willcox has made several visits to Roy before and is very popular with Roy society.

Karl Guthman, former associate editor of the Spanish-American, who is now holding a position in the big store at Dawson, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Guthman, for the past week, returning to Dawson on Friday.

A. R. Davis and Bill left for Denver, Friday, on a sightseeing trip. Mr. Davis will meet Mrs. Davis there and they will return in about ten days.

Forty miles to the next Soda Fountain. Better come in and get an ice cream soda at Fairview Pharmacy.

Jno. Lauterbach and Nick Simons were business visitors in Roy Monday. Mr. L. B. Dutcher accompanied them to Roy and took the southbound train for Tucumcari.

A. S. Bushkevitz and W. Frank Walkowiak made a business trip to Mosquero, Wednesday. They report everything quiet at the metropolis.

John Brenizer of Topeka, Kan., came in Thursday, and will reside on his homestead, two miles east of town.

E. E. Post, who has been staying in Roy for the last two months, left for Clayton, Wednesday.

Don't forget to bring your girl down stairs for a dish of ice cream when you attend the dances at the I. O. O. F. Hall.

That every kind of fruit grown in a temperate zone will flourish on New Mexico lands has been thoroughly demonstrated. Reports show that over $800,000 was the gross value of the crop here last year, and the new orchards now coming into bearing will, within five years, bring the value up to $2,000,000.—New Mexico News.

Miss Shirley Nutter, the accomplished daughter of J. N. Nutter, is down from Dawson, visiting with her parents, east of town. She has been engaged to teach in Vegas this year.

Mrs. Boulware, wife of our enterprising farmer, R. W. Boulware, left for Richmond, Ky., Wednesday. She has gone on an extended visit, and will return about Fair time.

Mark Melton and Ira Thetford were business callers to Roy this week.
